ATTENTION ~ REVISED NEWSLETTER ADVERTISING INFORMATION

Thank you for choosing the Courier for your advertising!

All advertisements shall appear on the last few pages of The Courier, the newsletter for the Oaks North Community Center (ONCC). The first section is reserved for Association Business followed by the Center’s Events and Activities and the advertisements shall follow. The Courier reaches 1,963 homes (6 issues per year). Advertising will be accepted from residential owners or their tenants, as well as from non-owners. All ads are accepted on a rotation basis as space permits. Please contact the ONCC office for more information regarding space availability and deadlines.

Material not acceptable for advertisement includes, but is not limited to: political, social, religious, or policy activist advertising; policy critiques; material deemed divisive, illegal, or immoral. The editor and Board of Directors reserve the right to refuse or suspend advertising that is deemed incompatible with an image of high quality and integrity. If ONCC refuses an ad, payment will be refunded in a timely manner.

Advertising rates may change at the end of any contracted period, as determined by the ONCC Board of Directors or Management. Repeat ads must be paid for before the submission deadline for the new advertising period. It is the responsibility of the advertiser to renew ads in a timely manner. Payment is due in full at the beginning of each contract period.
